Western Shore Housing Requirement

Students selecting Western Shore housing MUST be a rising junior or senior as determined by the Registrar's Office. Sophomore and freshmen students are not eligible for housing on the Western Shore. Students requesting Western Shore housing must sign-up together as a COMPLETE group (total of 4) in order to secure the suite. The student with the best number will be able to "pull-in" the remaining students.

Mark the item(s) below that applies to you.

- a. I plan to return to my current room assignment for the Fall 2009 semester. Not an option for Zone 3 housing
Requested Roommate(s) _____
- b. I plan to return to on-campus housing and will participate in the room selection process.
- c. I am requesting to move off campus for the Fall 2009 semester. I understand that I MUST complete the Housing Policy/Residency Status Form (which can be obtained in the Student Affairs Office) to apply for this option. You will be notified in writing if your request has been approved or denied. Deadline: April 4, 2007. Note: You are still encouraged to make arrangements for a housing assignment for Fall 2009. This would ensure that you have your first housing choice if you are not granted permission to move off campus.
- d. I will graduate at the end of the Spring or Summer 2009 sessions and therefore will not be returning to College housing.
- e. I will be studying abroad during the Fall 2009 semester and will not need college housing.
- f. I will not be attending Washington College for the Fall 2009 semester. (Check one)

Please explain _____
- g. I am unsure if I will attend Washington College in the Fall 2009 semester.
Explain: _____

I understand that my room will not be held for me if I indicate above that I am not returning to my current room next year. I also understand that submitting this form does not serve as substitution for my participation in the formal room selection process for the 2009-2010 academic year.
